An evening of dancing was enjoyed after which refreshments were served. Attending the party were Jack McNeil, Don Kelley, Bob and Dennis Chapman, Bob Pelprey, Rich Meisel and Ronnie Koller. Girls present were Jean McNeil, Ginny Sandstrom, Jolene Adams, Linda McReynolds, Barbara Beutte, Millie England, and Linda Printy of Los Angeles.

To Organize League Of Women Voters

A representative group of 41 women from this area attended a pre-organization meeting of the League of Women Voters on June 13, at the Palos Verdes Library. Mrs. Robert Zurbach and Mrs. Robert Lord of the State Board explained that the League is a nonpartisan organization whose purpose is to encourage all citizens to take part in their government.

To become more effective citizens League members work together in getting the facts on a particular problem, finding the different points of view and the reasons for them. Only then does the League take a stand in urging local, state, and national governments to adopt measures which the League supports.

Mrs. Melzar Jones was elected temporary chairman. Temporary committees include Mmes. George Gleghorn, G. H. Mills, and William J. Cox, by-laws; Mmes. Morwick Ross, John Nisley, Ross Chiles, R. C. Sharp, John Boyce-Smith, nominating; Mmes. Thomas G. Traeumer, Willard Graham, Thomas Kenney, George Kendall, Wesley Bradley, membership; Mmes. Richard Barrar, Jones.

Any women in the area interested in joining the League of Women Voters are urged to attend the organization and membership meeting on Wednesday, June 27, at 10 a.m. in the Art Gallery of the Palos Verdes Library. For further information call Mrs. Thomas G. Traeumer, or Mrs. Melzar Jones.

... Teenagers

The local incentive for this program which is somewhat like one being conducted in eastern hospitals, stemmed from the timely help volunteered by members of Job's Daughters, Bethel 50 of Torrance, during the Christmas holidays last year. Members who came to the hospital to wrap presents, distribute and help in the yuletide festivities were Linda Thayne, Jeanette Wright, Janalee Bristow, Kay and Pat Smith, Esther Van Wagner and Kathy Jones. David Emery was the first boy to serve.

Included in the teenage group now serving at the hospital are youngsters from Torrance, Rolling Hills, Lomita, Lawndale, Portuguese Bend, Gardena, Manhattan and Hermosa Beach, Palos Verdes and San Pedro.

In recruiting volunteer teenagers, Mrs. McAllister spoke before youth groups at Torrance, Banning and San Pedro High Schools, Rainbow Girls, Catholic youth groups and other church organizations. "All religions are represented in my teenage group," Mrs. McAllister proudly states.

One of the questions she is called upon numerous times to answer is the concern of parents over the possibility of their girl or boy contacting diseases from the many patients at the hospital. Mrs. McAllister explains this is a remote possibility as teenagers are not permitted to go into wards or rooms where contagious cases are. As for the other rooms and wards, the danger is at a minimum as the hospital follows a rigid hygiene program. The teens are more safe in this regard at the hospital than they are in public places.

Some of the volunteer, teen helpers, have become so interested in their duties at the hospital that they have extended their four-hour period of duty to three days a week. While at the hospital, the volunteer teens are given one meal.

As the result of their work at the hospital, some of the teenagers who started last fall have been given jobs with medicine firms in Los Angeles. The experience they get in their volunteer work, cannot be acquired even in the classroom.

Not only does this work offer opportunities but it tends to fill youthful heads with more sober thinking. A teenager helping to check in an accident victim who is suffering in pain, disheveled and bleeding, is not likely to disregard traffic rules when driving a car.

So if you are between the ages of 15 and 18, and would like to lend your talents to this volunteer work, then Mrs. McAllister, co-ordinator of the Volunteer Service at Harbor General Hospital is looking for you.
